Rabi Al-Awwal

The word "Rabi" means "spring" and Al-awwal means "the first" in Arabic language, so "Rabi al-awwal" means "The first spring" in Arabic language. The names seems to have to do with the celebration events in the month as "spring" is the end to winter (symbol of sadness) and consequently the start of happiness. The Arabic calendar being lunar calendar, the month is naturally rotating over years and Rabi' al-awwal can be in spring or any other season every now and then, so the meaning can not be related to the actual season.[3]
